MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Central Intelligence

SUBJECT: Congressional Measure for a Joint Committee on Intelligence

1. This memorandum is for information only.
2. On Thursday, 22 January 1959, Representative Alfred E. Santangelo (D., N. Y.) introduced H. Con. Res. 41 to establish a Joint Committee on Intelligence Matters. This brings the present total of such measures to eleven bills introduced by ten congressmen (Congressman Clement J. Zablocki introduced two bills).
3. We are reviewing these measures as they are introduced and making comparisons of these bills on the structure of the Joint Committee proposed.
